Tuesday, December 12, 2014 Drake Gets Fanatic: Miami Beats Cleveland 66-63 Drake was the man at FedExForum on Tuesday night. The third-ranked Miami Hurricanes (10-1, 2-0) needed a win to keep their championship hopes alive, and they probably didn't get it any easier than they did against East Tennessee State. Freshman Kevin O'Connell had 15 points and eight rebounds, and Miami got a game-winning layup with 2.1 seconds left on a drive to the basket by Justin Martin. O'Connell had eight points and six rebounds by halftime, and the only thing anyone could talk about were his statistics. The Miami fans were packed in the sections behind the Tennessee bench, and some poor Cleveland Cavaliers fans in the front row got a good look at the Hurricanes' intensity. Drake had eight rebounds and five points in the first half, and it was 44-40 at the break. That's when the electricity came from O'Connell in the second half, as the Miami point guard went for 20 points in the second half to finish with a season-high 26 points and five assists. Duke coach Mike Krzyzewski had
