In the lower left corner of the screen, you'll see the buttons in the configuration screen. There are two important sections you need to look at: Configurable buttons and color scheme. Configurable buttons First, let us take a closer look at the Configurable Buttons section. Press the button you want to assign to a macro, and scroll down to where it says Action and Key. Here, select the macro you'd like to assign to the key and press OK. Logitech Launch Gaming Software Profiler Download You can also assign macros to perform actions such as clearing the screen, sleeping the PC, etc. Just repeat the steps above, and you'll be able to assign macros to perform your favorite desktop tasks. Logitech Launch Gaming Software Profiler Download If you'd like to assign another macro to perform an action with your mouse buttons, or just find it really easy to use, you should also look into the Configurable Buttons section of the Logitech Gaming Software. If you click on the top left of the sections, you'll be brought to the configurable buttons section. Here, you can assign macros to various desktop actions such as sleep, back, forward, zoom, etc. There is also FFA which stands for Force Feedback Alpha, which allows you to configure the performance and accuracy of your mouse. It is recommended that you test your mouse settings on your own personal computer, as it differs from one computer to another.
