Kindly, In any case, thank you for this in-depth discussion of the services offered, and the programs you are working with, (most of them) in particular, the schools. I hope there is greater awareness and information out there for those seeking books. I have been working with schools since 1989, and have been amazed by what children and teachers have accomplished, and what has been lost. I have spent time around the World. I have seen some wonderful schools, and some terrible ones. Most of it, I am pretty certain has to do with the talent and attitude of the teachers and staff. Children seem to be a product of their environment. Good teachers can make it better, but bad teachers make it worse. I wish you the best of luck, and hope that this eBook you have created, will be read by many. You are most kind...

Karen Bradshaw Hello! I am interested in learning more about the programs and resources you mentioned in the post. I work in a low-income area and I believe it would be beneficial for the kids in the area to receive new books. In the past we have received books from the school's book fair, a bookstore in our town, and a poor man's book fair in the local mall. The books have been donated and I have set up the children in the class to read them. I would like to start a collection for our school and would love to contact you in regards to the programs and books that you mentioned in the post! Thank you for your time. Abigail Hello.
